Bug Report

Bug ID: https://us.shein.com/

Bug Summary: Repetition based visual bug. Lay out issues in the front page of the site. Overlapping of popup ads all over the front page. User mobility is limited.

Bug Description:

Steps to Reproduce:

1. Tested on Chrome.
2. Go to https://us.shein.com/
3. Hover over the many tabs available such as 'Sale'.
4. As you try to choose a specific tab, the touch user is sensitive that the other tab away from sale would open.

Actual Result: The tab you want to choose cannot be opened because your mouse would roll over to another category.

Possible Solutions:

To fix visual bugs, developers or testers should detect these bugs through Visual UI Testing. This would indicate the visual bugs present on the app/site.
